

Searching for Continuing Disclosures on EMMA

The Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board recently enhanced EMMA's search capabilities to include a feature that enables investors and other users to more easily locate specific continuing disclosure documents. Several hundred new documents are posted on EMMA's continuing disclosure section each day such as annual financial filings and other material event notices from bond issuers. The new search function allows investors to search EMMA's electronic collection of continuing disclosures based on their date of posting, issuer name, state, CUSIP number and category of filing.

How to search for a continuing disclosure

From the EMMA homepage at emma.msrb.org, click on the Market Activity page and select the blue Continuing Disclosure tab. Click on the green "Search" button on the right side of the continuing disclosure landing page. Select any combination of search criteria including the type of filing, filing category, date, state, CUSIP number or issuer name to locate a particular document. Click on the search button to conduct the search.

The screenshot shows the EMMA website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with "About EMMA", "Muni Search", "Market Activity", "Education Center", and "EMMA Dataport". The "Market Activity" page is active, and a "Continuing Disclosure Search" modal window is open. The search form includes the following fields:

- Submission Criteria:
 - Type: Financial/Operating Filing
 - Category: Show All Categories
 - Disclosure Period Date: From [] To []
 - Posted Date: [] []
- Security/Issue Criteria:
 - CUSIP-6 or CUSIP-9: []
 - State: []
 - Issuer Name: []

Buttons for "Search...", "Clear", and "Close" are located at the bottom of the search form. In the background, a table of recent disclosures is visible, with columns for "Posting Date/Time", "Issuer Name", and "Document Title".
